PROGRAM CO-CHAIRS MESSAGE

On behalf of ACJS President Brandon Applegate and the members of the 2016 program committee, we would like to welcome you to the 53rd annual Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences meeting in Denver. This year's program in the "Mile High City" includes over 442 events and promises to be a professionally rewarding experience for all—faculty, practitioners, and students.

The theme of the 2016 meeting "Advancing Justice on All Fronts" is reflected in many of this year's paper presentations and roundtables. There are more than 66 policing panels and roundtables, over 49 corrections sessions, 42 criminal justice education sessions, 41 panels focused on the criminal justice system and more than 36 courts & sentencing and juvenile justice. Last but not least, there are nearly 30 comparative/ international criminal justice sessions this year. We have made a concerted effort to schedule these topic area presentations equally across time slots each day from Wednesday through Saturday (Saturday 9:30-12:15); so that no matter how long your schedule permits you to attend, we anticipate you will find several events aligned for your professional development and personal growth.

We are pleased that this year's program is enhanced with a keynote speaker who advances justice on many fronts, Mr. Owen Jones. Mr. Jones' work connects multiple scholarship areas, including law, biology and behavior. We hope you enjoy his presentation, "Criminal Law, Justice and Neuroscience" in room Plaza Ballroom D/E on Thursday at 2pm. In addition to this keynote, we have assimilated four unique Presidential Feature events. These events include prestigious scholars in a variety of areas and will be held in Governor's Square 15. On Wednesday at 9:30am, Lewis Koski and Ron Kammerzell from State of Colorado Department of Revenue will provide meaningful insight "Marijuana Enforcement After Legalization: The Colorado Experience." On Wednesday at 2pm Kelly Micetich of MacEwan University will present "An Examined Life: Challenging the Narrative of Justice Involved Youth with Creative Innovation and Evidence." Our Presidential Feature panel on Thursday at 11am will be Barry Feld of the University of Minnesota discussing "My Life in Crime: An Intellectual History of the Juvenile Court." And finally, our Presidential panel on Friday at 9:30am will be Francis T. Cullen from the University of Cincinnati who will provide an insightful talk on the topic "A Criminologist in the Making."

On Wednesday and Thursday, there will be a complimentary coffee bar located in the Plaza Ballroom A/B/C, from 9:00-10:30 am. Friday, the coffee bar will be from 9:00 - 10:00 am. In the same location, The Exhibit Hall will also have a meeting/seating area available for conference participants (9-5 on Wed. & Thurs., 9-2 on Fri.). Plan to join the Presidential Address on Wednesday from 6:15- 7:00 pm in the Plaza Ballroom D/E which will be followed by the President's Reception from 7:00-8:30 pm in the Plaza Ballroom D/E.

The General meeting is open to all attendees on Friday morning from 11-12pm (in Director's row H). Also later Friday night from 7-8:30pm (in Plaza Ballroom D/E/F) we will host the Research and Pictorial Showcase where there are over 140 visual displays.

To ensure that all conference participants can attend these events, there are no other events scheduled during this time. All attendees are also encouraged to attend the Awards Ceremony & Luncheon on Friday 12:30-2pm in Plaza Ballroom D/E/F to recognize and support your colleagues for their contributions to the field!

As program chairs for the 2016 conference, we sincerely hope you enjoy both the conference and your time in Denver. As our time as Program Chairs comes to an end, we would like to extend our sincere thanks to all of the individuals who lent us a hand in putting together this program. A sincere thank you to all the members of the program and local arrangements committees who served the Academy this year. To our amazing graduate assistant, Ashleigh LaCourse, thank you for your tireless work. Finally thank you to Brandon Applegate for entrusting us as your Program Chairs. Last, we thank Cathy Barth, ACJS Association Manager, who makes sure that it all comes together in the end.

To make sure you have a safe conference feel free to view information on legal issues in the "Mile High City": <https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/marijuanainfodenver/residents-visitors>

Jennifer L. Hartman and Shelley Listwan
2016 ACJS Program Co-Chairs

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear ACJS Colleagues,

Welcome to Denver and the 2016 ACJS Annual Meeting... our 53rd conference! This year's conference theme, "Advancing Justice on All Fronts," seeks to highlight two important dimensions of criminal justice scholarship. First, it embraces efforts to improve the justice system, and second, it celebrates the multitude of ways that we do this—from enhancing our basic understanding of crime and criminal justice processes through theoretical research to applied work that seeks to directly inform and influence practice to education of the next generation of criminal justice professionals. At this conference, I hope to underscore the value of these efforts.

My Program Co-Chairs, Shelley Listwan and Jennifer Hartman, along with the members of the Program Committee have assembled an outstanding schedule of panels, roundtables, open seminars, and other events. They have my deepest thanks for their hard work and success in putting on what promises to be a great conference. Within the program, please look for five special events. Owen D. Jones of Vanderbilt University and the MacArthur Foundation Research Network on Law and Neuroscience will present a keynote address on Thursday at 2:00 pm—Criminal Law, Justice and Neuroscience. Four other Presidential Feature Events focus on Colorado leaders' experiences with marijuana legalization (Wednesday), a program that introduced a critical turning point for justice-involved urban youths (Wednesday), and the remarkable careers of two preeminent scholars—Barry Feld (Thursday) and Frank Cullen (Friday). I hope you take the opportunity to attend these events.

Throughout the year, many people voluntarily contribute countless hours working on the various ACJS committees. The Executive Board also has spent the year in tireless efforts to guide and advance our organization. These individuals will be recognized for their service at the Awards Luncheon Friday afternoon. Of course, this luncheon will also be our opportunity to recognize this year's award winners. These awards go to remarkable people who have made consequential contributions to criminal justice. Only a limited number of attendees can be accommodated at the luncheon, so plan ahead!

Beyond the scholarly sessions, I would encourage you to also join in the social events available at the conference. On Wednesday night, ACJS will host the President's Reception, the Research and Pictorial Showcase on Friday evening blends visual presentations with an informal atmosphere (and refreshments), and also on Friday evening you can join in Karaoke (or just come enjoy others doing so). Please also consider participating in "Share Your ACJS" by emailing pictures of your conference experiences to yourACJS@gmail.com. The pictures will be shown in a slideshow format during karaoke (and may be posted on our Facebook page too)!

Finally, I hope that you will avail yourself of the many things to do and see in and around Denver. The conference hotel is conveniently located downtown on the 16th Street mall, a mile-long, pedestrian-friendly strip of many places to eat, drink, shop, and relax. Also look for events we have arranged for conference attendees to experience the criminal justice side of Denver!

Far more than what I mentioned above, people are what make the conference and ACJS great. Thank you for joining us, and I hope you enjoy your time in Denver!

Regards,
Brandon Applegate
President, ACJS

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences Annual Meeting Attendees,

If you are new to the Academy then a big hearty welcome to you! If you are a regular attendee of ACJS meetings then welcome to the 53rd! The Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences was originally created by a few police scholars interested in providing an open and welcoming environment for both academics and practitioners where fresh ideas and research might be exchanged and applied for the betterment of our communities, practice and scholarship. Since that time the Academy has grown to be one of the premier Criminal Justice/Criminology organizations in the country representing a diverse group of scholars, practitioners and student members from all regions of the country and including many international members too. This year's meeting promises to be one of the largest ever (last year in Orlando we broke attendance records and this year, at the time of this writing in early January, the hotel rooms were booking fast), with 446 events planned for this three and a half day conference.

ACJS President Brandon Applegate, his Program Chairs (Shelley Listwan and Jennifer Hartman), the 2016 Program Committee, the ACJS Executive Board, countless other volunteers who chair panels and run committees, sections and organize events at the meeting, along with Association Manager Cathy Barth and myself, have created a conference with you in mind. We hope that you will enjoy what is available and feel free to give us feedback on what you experience either directly or in the survey you will have the opportunity to complete after the conference is complete.

As you may be aware, certification has become a vehicle for both the academic and practitioner worlds to encourage adherence with higher standards of practice. ACJS established its certification standards for academic programs in 2005 and recently revised them in 2014, to make them more applicable to a greater number of Criminal Justice/Criminology academic programs. As a result more programs/departments have initiated the certification process. If you are in a department or program which is interested in being certified by the Academy, consider attending the sessions, titled "Open Seminar: Technical Assistance, Program Review, and Program Certification – What You Need to Know," where the changes in the certification standards will be discussed: Wednesday, March 30 from 2:00 – 3:15 p.m., EVENT #109, Plaza Court 1 and Thursday, March 31 from 9:30 – 10:45 a.m., EVENT #194, Plaza Court 2. If you are interested in becoming a trained program reviewer you must first get approval of the ACJS Executive Board and then undergo training by the Academy. This year that training is scheduled for Thursday, March 31 from 12:30 – 4:45 p.m., EVENT #260, Terrace/Tower. Certification standards and related information are also available for your review on the ACJS website at www.acjs.org or you might want to contact the chair of the Academic Review Committee, Dr. Barbara Peat at bpeat@iun.edu, for more information about certification.

Besides the "work" of the conference – the panels, presentations, workshops, and roundtables – please also be sure to stop in at the section and regional business meetings and their respective events (notably ACJS will again sponsor the All Regions Ice Cream Social in the Plaza Foyer on Wednesday, from 4:30– 5:30). If you are new to ACJS, the very best way to meet and get to know people is to participate in sections with others who have similar research and pedagogical interests, or practitioner experience, as you! Working for the regional organizations will also lead to friendships which can be renewed not just at ACJS, but at a regional meeting. Students should not hesitate to join the sections and regions as well, as these connections are vital to your professional or scholarly growth. ACJS friends are often made by volunteering to do work for the regions and the sections and by serving on the various committees who oil the machine of ACJS.

Also check out the book vendors in the Exhibit Hall (Plaza Ballroom A/B/C). We are indebted to several publishers for their support over the years, including their sponsorship of events and food for attendees. Of particular note is Sage's continued sponsorship of the Professional Development Teaching Workshop for new faculty or advanced doctoral students (pre-registration is required) on both Tuesday and Wednesday. If you missed your chance to apply this year, consider responding to the call for registration that ACJS sends its members each year in the Summer/Fall.

If you are looking for a job or interested in hiring, the Employment Exchange, open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in Governor's Square 17, is the place to be. You can peruse the job listings and potential applicants at your leisure and schedule an interview while at this meeting (I met my husband at a job interview at ACJS, so clearly good things happen in the Employment Exchange – just sayin!).

As indicated in the ACJS program and on the App for this meeting, we have some special events planned for you at this conference: the New Attendees Breakfast which is free for new ACJS members ("new" within the last three years) is scheduled for Wednesday, March 30 from 7:30 a.m. until 8:30 a.m. in the Plaza Ballroom F (new faculty, new graduate students and new practitioner members are particularly welcome at this event which will be attended by the ACJS President and members of the Executive Board); the President's Reception, scheduled for Wednesday, March 30, from 7:00 p.m.-8:30 p.m. in the Plaza Ballroom D/E is free and open to all (come meet Presidents from years past, and from the future, roaming the reception hall); and speakers who will address the theme of "Advancing Justice on All Fronts"; the Research and Pictorial Showcase (along with snacks) is scheduled for Friday April 1st from 7:00-8:30 pm in the Plaza Ballroom D/E/F; finally, for the second straight year, also on Friday night April 1st and following the Showcase, from 9:00 pm to midnight the ACJS President's Karaoke Night will be held, this year in Director's Row H and you are all invited so feel free to come be an April Fool! This year our hotel in Denver is situated in the center of the downtown with close proximity to restaurants, bars, book stores, the Capital and all manner of shops and we hope you will have the time to take advantage of this location.

Finally, managing the Academy is a team effort, one done mostly by volunteers who essentially "own" the academy and decide its future. If you have not done so already please feel free to become one of those volunteers who will help us achieve the original mission envisioned by those first police scholars, who had been practitioners, and who were interested in the betterment of, and ultimately more just, communities.

Let me close by again welcoming you to the 53rd Annual Meeting of ACJS! If I can be of assistance to you in any way regarding the conference or ACJS, please do not hesitate to contact me at mary.stohr@wsu.edu,

Best to all,

Mary

Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences

Certification for Academic Programs

The goal of the ACJS Certification Standards and implementing a Certification Review process is to measurably improve the quality of criminal justice education. For several years, ACJS had Minimum Standards for Criminal Justice Education and these standards were used in a peer review process through ACJS Academic Review. The new standards and process represent an evolution from “peer review” to “certification”. The ACJS Certification is designed to evaluate evidence-based compliance with the Certification Standards.

What do we mean by compliance with standards? The ACJS Executive Board will Certify those programs that undergo ACJS Certification Review and that have demonstrated, through substantive, credible evidence, the program meets or exceeds all parts of every standard. The emphasis is on evidence, not intention. Programs are required to provide evidence of program quality & effectiveness based on program outcome assessment.

The Certification Standards are broken into nine sections, each of which has specific Standards and Recommended Indicators. The sections are:

- A: Program Mission & History
- B: Program Structure & Curriculum
- C: Faculty
- D: Admission & Articulation
- E: Resources
- F: Student Services
- G: Integrity
- H: Program Quality & Effectiveness
- I: Branch Campuses, Additional Locations, and Other Instructional Sites

The Certification Standards for Academic Programs and Process for Undergoing Review are available for Associate, Baccalaureate, and Master's degree programs. You can access these Standards on the ACJS website, on the Certification page. The Application for Program Certification and other documents can also be downloaded from the Certification page.

Program Guidelines

All program participants are required to pre-register for the conference and to provide their own transportation and meeting expenses. The form for downloading and submitting pre-registration is available at www.acjs.org on the Annual Meeting page of the website.

Abstracts should be submitted only once via the ACJS website. DO NOT SEND ABSTRACTS DIRECTLY TO THE TOPIC AREA CHAIRS. If you have questions about your submission, please send them to the Program Co-Chairs Willard Oliver and Nancy Marion at ACJS2017@uakron.edu.

LCD projectors will be available in the meeting rooms. No laptops/computers or overhead projectors will be provided. Additional audio/video equipment is the responsibility of the presenter. Individuals wanting additional equipment must either bring their own equipment to the conference or make arrangements through the hotel for equipment rental.

ACJS Program Participation Options

Research Showcase

The Research Showcase is a collection of visual displays of research that encourages informal interaction between authors and audience. The primary author of a Research Showcase presentation must be in attendance and committed to standing near his or her presentation throughout the allotted session.

Paper Presentations

Panels consist of four or five presenters of written papers and a panel chair. Presenters make formal presentations of completed works. The panel chair opens and closes the session and coordinates questions and comments from the audience. Participants who select this option are expected to send their finished papers to the Panel Chair two weeks prior to the conference.

Student Authored Paper Panels

Undergraduate and graduate student authors may submit their papers to a regular topical area of their choice where they will present with other faculty and practitioners. However, students have the option to submit their papers for presentation on an all-student panel. These panels are on a variety of topical areas, and are designed to facilitate initial presentations in a supportive and welcoming environment. Participants who select this option are expected to send their finished papers to the Panel Chair two weeks prior to the conference. Students who select this option should select "student panel" as their topic area.

Complete Panels

A complete panel consists of coordinating the arrangement of four papers related to a common theme. The person facilitating the complete panel must include a panel chair, panel title, and four papers with all supporting information for the papers at the time of submission to the website. Participants involved in this option are expected to send their finished papers to the Panel Chair two weeks prior to the conference.

Roundtables

Roundtables are open discussions of a topic, organized by a moderator and involving no more than four individual discussants with special knowledge or expertise in the topic area. No formal papers are presented. Often the discussion concerns diverse viewpoints or findings in a topic area.

Open Seminars

An open seminar involves one or more presenters speaking on more practical educational issues such as seeking extramural research funding, the job search process, developing course syllabi, or entering university administration. Open seminars can also be hands-on experiences that involve the audience as participants (e.g., mock job interviews, victim-offender mediation). An Open Seminar is in a different format than a roundtable panel because there are no discussants and no scholarly papers presented. All Open Seminars are open to all conference participants with no advance registration required.

IN MEMORIAM

Charles Chastain

The field of criminal justice has lost another of its founding greats. Charles Chastain was diagnosed with multiple cancers the first week of June and died just two days later. Charles served the Department of Criminal Justice at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock from his arrival as an assistant professor to retirement, serving over 20 years as chair. Charles was one of the very earliest adoptees of the LEAA effort to develop criminal justice degrees and provide an education for police, corrections and others in the criminal justice system. He was a very vocal supporter of criminal justice studies as a liberal arts education that had the potential to transform people, both within and outside the justice system, though a broader understanding of the workings of crime, justice, and politics in the U.S. Through his efforts, he established the criminal justice bachelor of arts at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock in 1972. Soon thereafter, he established the master of arts program in criminal justice. In both of these, he insisted on an arts designation rather than the more popular science designation because he felt criminal justice students should be exposed to the arts, languages, and philosophies of a liberal arts education. The number of people Charles touched and changed through interaction with him is immeasurable. He helped form the philosophies of several heads of the Arkansas Department of Correction, and many police chiefs, police officers, probation officers, and others. He touched the early academic lives of many people who are now lawyers and professors, including offering an adjunct teaching position to a young Bill Clinton. Charles was also a strong supporter of people in prison. He started a program to collect books from people to build libraries in prisons throughout Arkansas. He was one of the first people to become involved in the Inside-Out program in prisons because he wanted to show students that those in prison were much the same as them with some different life experiences and to show those in prison the potential for future success through education. Charles was also a believer in the academic associations, having been President of the Southwestern Association of Criminal Justice and a board member of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences. For me, Charles believed in me when many graduate schools would not. He was a mentor, confidant, and friend for over 25 years. I feel as I have lost a father. I am sure all those Charles touched feel the same. We have lost one of the greats.

IN MEMORIAM

Bernadette Palombo

Bernadette Marie Jones-Palombo, professor of Criminal Justice and, recently, director of General Studies at LSU in Shreveport, entered eternal rest and peace on April 11, 2015, at her home in Shreveport, La., following a lengthy battle with multiple forms of cancer. A celebration of her remarkable life was held on Friday, April 17, at 10 a.m. at Rose-Neath Funeral Home's Marshall Street Chapel, Deacon Homer Tucker of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church, officiating.

Dr. Jones-Palombo was born on August 10, 1949, to Elva Clementine and Gilbert Francis Jones of Pittsburgh, Pa., and was one of five children. Her siblings include Gilbert Francis Jr., Lawrence, and James of Pittsburgh, and David of Pompano Beach, Fla.

She married Michael Anthony Palombo and they had one child, Dominic, her beloved "Domenico," and their spirits are now reunited. Her two grandsons, Nino and Nico, of Chevy Chase, MD, remain to carry the family legacy. Her dying wish, which was unfulfilled, was to see her grandchildren and let them know of her great love for them.

Dr. Jones-Palombo graduated from Domenec High School in Pittsburgh and earned a bachelor's degree in Political Studies from Pitzer College in Claremont, Calif. She received her master's degree in Criminal Justice from the Center for Politics and Economics at Claremont University and received a Ph.D. in Political Sciences from the same center at Claremont.

She arrived at Louisiana State University, Shreveport (LSUS) in 1995 to lead a prestigious grant on Community Oriented Policing and received her 20-year pin shortly before her death. Although she was noted for community policing, her research was eclectic, including teaching evaluations, gang theory and white collar crime, to name only a few.

Throughout her career she was dedicated not only to her academic field but to two professional organizations, the Academy of Community Justice Sciences and the American Society of Criminology. She was a member of Alpha Phi Sigma national criminal justice honor society. Her commitment to professional organizations was reflected in the number of students she encouraged to participate in them, particularly Lambda Sigma Upsilon Chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma at LSUS.

Interested and involved in her community, Dr. Jones-Palombo was proud of her membership in League of Women Voters, an organization she served as Louisiana vice president from 2003 to 2007.

For seven years, Dr. Jones-Palombo served as the chairman of the Department of History and Social Science (2008-2014), working during difficult economic times to assure quality educational resources for the students in the department.

An accomplished and devoted educator, she penned numerous articles and was author, editor or co-editor of "Academic Professionalism in Law Enforcement," (which was one of the initial studies of gender in law enforcement), "Provision of the Right to Counsel in Caddo Parish," and "Wicked Shreveport."

In 2004, Dr. Jones-Palombo was named to Who's Who Among American Teachers. This is a testament to her unswerving dedication to students and to her profession. Her life as an educator assures that, although she is no longer here, her legacy remains in all whom she influenced.

An optimistic spirit and focus on the future allowed Bernadette Jones-Palombo to live far beyond what was expected and gave her a sense of hope. That optimism was reflected by her request to be placed on this summer's teaching schedule at LSUS.

A nurturer by nature with a kind a loving heart, she leaves a host of friends and students who join her family in mourning her passing. The family thanks Dr. Marianne Fisher-Giorlando, Grambling State University, retired, Kim Jensen, a friend and colleague at LSUS, and Willis-Knighton Hospice nurse, Tristy, as well as her physician, Dr. Chip McDonald.

The Bernadette Jones-Palombo Scholarship has been established at LSUS in her memory and would be a fitting option for those who prefer to make a contribution. Please contact Dr. Gary Joiner at gary.joiner@lsus.edu

Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, said, "A good teacher is like a candle — it consumes itself to light the way for others." The light and legacy of Dr. Jones-Palombo will continue to shine for years to come.

RETAIL MARIJUANA IN COLORADO

INFO FOR VISITORS

June 10, 2015

Now that retail marijuana is legal in Colorado, we all have a few things to know.

LAWS OVERVIEW

BUYING OR SELLING MARIJUANA

Must be 21.

It is illegal for people under 21 to buy, have or use retail marijuana. It is a felony for adults to give, sell or share marijuana with anyone under 21.

Only buy from licensed retail stores.

From Colorado?

Colorado residents 21 years and older can buy up to one ounce of retail marijuana at a time.

From out-of-state?

Non-residents can buy up to 1/4 ounce of retail marijuana.

Do not sell it.

It is illegal to sell marijuana if you are not a licensed retailer.

USING OR HAVING MARIJUANA

No more than 1 ounce.

Adults age 21 and older may have up to 1 ounce of marijuana. Having more may result in legal charges or fines.

Illegal to use in public.

No matter how you use marijuana - smoked, eaten, or vaped- it is not allowed in public places.

This includes:

Outdoor spaces like national and local parks, ski resorts, concert venues and indoor areas like restaurants and bars.

Check hotel or vacation rental policies.

Many properties do not allow smoking of any kind in private rooms, hallways, patios or porches. Policies may be different, so check before you use.

GETTING AROUND COLORADO

Do not drive high.

It is illegal to drive under the influence of marijuana and you can get a DUI.

Do not use in a car.

It is illegal to use marijuana or have open packages in a car. Additionally, rental car companies may charge fees if the car smells like marijuana.

Keep it in Colorado.

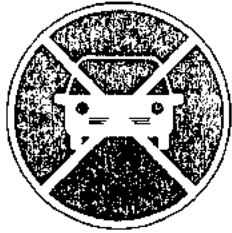

It is illegal to take marijuana out of the state or to Denver International Airport. Dispose of unwanted marijuana before leaving the state.

Unwanted marijuana?

Trash unwanted marijuana where no one can see it, like in a large dumpster or sealed in an empty jar and thrown out. Do not leave leftover marijuana in hotel rooms or rental cars when you go home.

FOR MORE ON THE RETAIL MARIJUANA LAWS AND REGULATIONS IN COLORADO,
VISIT Colorado.gov/Marijuana.

TIPS FOR SAFE AND RESPONSIBLE USE

DRIVING WHILE HIGH MAY DOUBLE YOUR RISK OF A CRASH.

Marijuana makes driving more dangerous because it slows your reaction time and makes it harder to tell distances.

Wait at least 6 hours after smoking or at least 8 hours after eating/drinking marijuana before driving, biking, skiing or doing other activities.

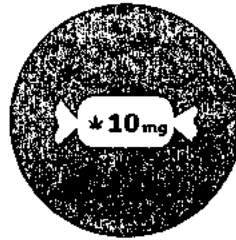

DO NOT MIX MARIJUANA AND ALCOHOL.

Using alcohol and marijuana at the same time is more dangerous than using either alone.

BE CAREFUL IF YOU TAKE MEDICATION.

There may be drug interactions between marijuana and your medication.

START SLOW.

A single 10 mg serving of THC is likely enough to hurt your ability to drive, bike or do other activities, especially for occasional users.

While you quickly feel the effects from smoked or vaped marijuana, edibles can take up to 4 hours to take full effect. Start with less than one serving and wait before using more.

STORE IT SAFELY.

Marijuana products can be confused for regular food or candy.

Store all marijuana products in a locked area. Make sure children cannot see or reach the locked area. Keep marijuana in the child-resistant packaging from the store.

Ask the marijuana retailer for more information if you are not sure about how to use a product safely and responsibly.

SOME PEOPLE SHOULD NOT USE MARIJUANA.

Pregnant or breastfeeding women should not use marijuana since it can harm their baby.

Young people should protect their growing brain by not using marijuana.

CONSIDER LONG-TERM EFFECTS.

Marijuana can hurt your memory, even a week after using.

HAVING A BAD TIME?

If you are worried that you or someone else used too much marijuana, call the poison control hotline as soon as possible. Calling is free and you will get help quickly: 1-800-222-1222. If symptoms seem bad, call 911 or go to an emergency room right away.

Calling for help in case of any drug or alcohol emergency can save lives. Colorado law protects people from some criminal charges, such as low level drug possession and use charges or minor in possession, if they call 911 or seek help for a medical emergency. Stay with the person and cooperate with police and emergency medical responders.

ACJS 2016 EMPLOYMENT EXCHANGE

The ACJS Employment Exchange (EE), located in Governor's Square 17 will open on Wednesday, March 30, 2016, at 12:00 pm and close at 5:00 pm. On Thursday, March 31, and Friday, April 1, the EE will open from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. The EE will not be open on Saturday.

In keeping with the desire to GO GREEN, no longer is it necessary to send hard copies of position announcements or candidate vita. Building on the success of the EE at ACJS 2013, due in no small part to the assistance provided by ACJS Manager Cathy Barth, the EE will provide laptops containing "Job Openings" as well as "Job Candidates" to accommodate ACJS EE attendees as well as numerous other innovations. Hiring institutions need to send 1) full announcement and 2) brief description of the position ("position-at-a-glance"; see below for details), and job candidates need to send their vitae by attachment to JLee@psu.edu.

For easy indexing in our email system, hiring institutions should use "ACJSJOBOPENING" as their email title, and job candidates should use "ACJSJOBCANDIDATE" as their email title. There is no cutoff date; the EE will maintain a rolling enrollment. However, for best results, institutions or persons wishing to post to the EE are advised to email the announcement or listing at least one week prior to the Annual Meeting. Submissions will continue to be accepted by bringing the announcements or candidate listing to the EE on a flash drive. Those working in the EE will be happy to copy announcements and candidate listings to the proper set of laptops. Internet access will NOT be available on these laptops.

The EE will operate three laptops for position searches. There will be a folder on the desktop screen, and the list of institutions will be in a document file format. Job candidates can open the files to confirm the position announcements. Job candidates may browse the announcements and save files to their own flash drive.

The EE will operate two computers for candidate searches. There will be a folder on the desktop screen containing individual candidate vitae. The files will be indexed by name and specialties listed by the candidate(s). Hiring institution representatives may browse the profiles and can save the files in their own flash drives. The Internet access is NOT available on these laptops. Those seeking candidates for positions may browse the vitae and save files to their own flash drives.

At any given time during the EE program, at least two EE representatives will be on-site. The EE representatives will be graduate students from across the country that have volunteered their services to ACJS. EMPLOYMENT EXCHANGE Ribbons below their nametags will easily identify them.

Along with the position announcements, hiring institutions are advised to submit brief summary memos, called "position-at-a-glance." containing 1) school name 2) position titles (e.g., policing, theory, corrections, generalist), 3) # of positions, 4) minimum requirements, and 5) contact information of the representative available during the ACJS Annual Meeting. The EE will organize the memos and beam them on a wall screen using a projector. Job candidates will be advised to glance at it for quick reference, and then go to the position announcement to see if they wish to contact the representative(s) attending the conference.

Hiring institution representatives should bring their own table banner. The banners should be in an acceptable fashion. It has been noted in the previous EE programs that some schools have had table banners with 1) poor graphic design, 2) overwhelming colors with unidentifiable school names, or 3) nothing but acronyms of the institution. Institutions are asked to be conscientious and check with their own faculty members before bringing a banner to the ACJS EE program.

Tables and chairs will be available for institutions and candidates to use for employment-related meetings, and they will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Institutions have been asked to determine in advance their interview schedule (i.e., who will be available on what days and at what times). Interview sign-up sheets will be made available for posting on a self-service basis.

On Thursday, March 31, 2016 at 9:30 am, Jim Ruiz, Associate Professor of Criminal Justice-Penn State Harrisburg, will make a presentation entitled, “Tips for a Successful Job Interview” in Governor’s Square 17.

NEW TO THE EE: Electronic Device Charging Station

At the last meeting, a charging station was incorporated into the EE as an added service to attendees. Because of the positive response it received, the charging station will, again, be located in the EE. So if you are running low on charge for any of your electronic devices, pass by the EE and make use of this convenient charging station.

ANNUAL MEETING EMPLOYMENT EXCHANGE NOTE: If a listing is active during the official dates of the ACJS Annual Meeting, the listing will be automatically included in the ACJS Employment Exchange job board.

ANNUAL MEETING PRESENTATION CATEGORIES

Panels

A Panel consists of four or five presenters of written papers and a panel chair. Presenters make formal presentations of completed works. The Panel chair opens and closes the session and coordinates questions and comments from the audience.

Feature Panels are panels that are likely to be of special interest to a wide audience or may feature one or more special guests.

Author Meets Critics

Author Meets Critics is a moderated discussion between the author(s) of a recent scholarly published work and three or four critics of the work's methodology and findings.

Roundtables

A Roundtable is an open discussion of a topic, organized by a moderator and involving several individual discussants with special knowledge or expertise in the topic area. Discussants can be academics, practitioners, or students. No formal papers are presented. Often the discussion concerns diverse viewpoints or findings in a topic area.

Feature Roundtables are roundtables of special interest to a wide audience or may feature one or more special guests.

Open Seminar

An Open Seminar involves one or more presenters on more practical educational opportunities on such topics as looking for funding, grant writing, finding a job, developing course syllabi, or becoming a new department chair. Open seminars can also be hands-on experiences that involve the audience as participants, such as mock job interviews or victim offender mediations. An Open Seminar is in a different format than a roundtable or panel, because there are no discussants and no scholarly papers presented. All Open Seminars are open to all conference participants with no advance registration required.

Research and Pictorial Showcase

The Research and Pictorial Showcase is a collection of visual displays of research that encourages informal interaction between authors and audience.

SPEAKER

Gabriel Hernandez

Gabe Hernandez has worked closely with urban community organizations mentoring youth who are categorized as at-risk, incarcerated, gang bangers, or a product of a broken family structure. His own story allows him to relate and share a different side, where there can be victory and hope. He recently moved to Colorado with his wife, Kimberly.

Born and raised in Fresno, CA., he is the middle child of 3 boys and 1 girl. He is half Hispanic and half white and the product of a single parent environment. At a young age, his father abandoned the family for drugs and alcohol. He grew up fortunate enough not to endure the worst of things even though they were very poor. Gabriel decided at a young age that he wanted to be in a gang despite the attempts of his mother to provide a stable home life and keep all her children involved in positive things. He began acting out at age 12, which led to multiple school referrals, suspensions, and eventually he became part of an illegal graffiti group. The graffiti group allowed him entry into the East Side Fresno Bulldog Gang. It was in the gang that he started to use of alcohol and drugs.

During the years of gang banging, he struggled a lot with right and wrong due to his upbringing. Drugs and alcohol allowed him to continue to walk along blurred lines and not question the morality of what he was doing. A few days after turning 18, Gabriel was arrested for assault with a deadly weapon and was incarcerated. He loved it! It was where he wanted to be to make his reputation grow. Prison followed. Not long after his release he was arrested and convicted for Carjacking, 3 counts of Kidnapping, and Robbery. While incarcerated, Gabriel became the leader of the Bulldogs Gang at his institution. After his release from prison, he violated parole numerous times. It wasn't until he was in a safety cell after being detained for severe schizophrenia following a dose of methamphetamine that sent him over the edge, he had a life changing interaction with God. He dropped out of the gang and began to pursue life and family. Unfortunately, not long after, he was under the influence of meth again. He was given the opportunity to go to a discipleship program out of town and accepted. It was there that he changed and has been clean ever since.

Eleven months after being released from prison and leaving the gang, he enrolled in Bible College to follow the path of ministry and learn the Bible in order to help others and bring life to them. In the five years it took him to receive his BA in Bible & Theology, he was able to encourage many people to seek life instead of death.

BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY

Master of Arts – Criminal Justice

The master's degree in Criminal Justice is designed to provide a foundation in research and theory in substantive areas of criminal justice activity and focused scholarship on issues of importance to the field. The faculty in our department is very productive in terms of teaching, publishing, and service to the community.

This translates into graduate courses that are cutting-edge and relevant in terms of topics, assigned materials, and discussions, as well as opportunities for both faculty-student research collaborations and student engagement in community discipline-related service.

The Department of Criminal Justice at Boise State University was named one of the top 10 M.A.-granting universities in terms of total grant dollars obtained by our faculty (Mustaine & Tewksbury, 2009).

A recent internal review determined that our program has a 100% placement rate for students applying to Ph.D. programs.

“A major contribution to the scholarly field of juvenile justice. I am simply unaware of any other book that combines sound empirical analyses with rich scholarship on juvenile justice.” —Michael G. Vaughn, Professor, School of Social Work, Saint Louis University

The first longitudinal study of more than 3,000 juveniles convicted of serious and violent crimes, Lost Causes investigates whether blended (juvenile and adult) sentencing programs actually deter delinquent minors from becoming hardened adult criminals.

Lost Causes

Blended Sentencing, Second Chances, and the Texas Youth Commission

By Chad R. Trulson, Darin R. Haerle, Jonathan W. Caudill, and Matt Delisi

What should be done with minors who kill, maim, defile, and destroy the lives of others? The state of Texas deals with some of its most serious and violent youthful offenders through “determinate sentencing,” a unique sentencing structure that blends parts of the juvenile and adult justice systems. Once adjudicated via determinate sentencing, offenders are first incarcerated in the Texas Youth Commission (TYC). As they approach age eighteen, they are either transferred to the Texas prison system to serve the remainder of their original determinate sentence or released from TYC into Texas’s communities.

The first long-term study of determinate sentencing in Texas, Lost Causes examines the social and delinquent histories, institutionalization experiences, and release and recidivism outcomes of more than 3,000 serious and violent juvenile offenders who received such sentences between 1987 and 2011. The authors seek to understand the process, outcomes, and consequences of determinate sentencing, which gave serious and violent juvenile offenders one more chance to redeem themselves or to solidify their place as the next generation of adult prisoners in Texas. The book’s findings—that about 70 percent of offenders are released to the community during their most crime-prone years instead of being transferred to the Texas prison system and that about half of those released continue to reoffend for serious crimes—make Lost Causes crucial reading for all students and practitioners of juvenile and criminal justice.

This innovative and groundbreaking book uses episodes of the popular television show LAW & ORDER to vividly and accurately illustrate various aspects of Investigative Criminal Procedure. Instructors may request a complimentary copy of the book that provides access to the companion ebook, which includes 12 complete episodes of LAW & ORDER and seamlessly incorporates scenes from the show, excerpts from over 200 U.S. Supreme Court opinions, and “black box” summaries of the law to clarify the constitutional rules binding upon law enforcement during the investigation of crimes.

A Teacher’s Manual includes valuable teaching tips, coverage suggestions for courses of various lengths, detailed notes and summaries for each case, and classroom-tested exercises that, along with the LAW & ORDER segments, will improve students’ engagement and enhance their understanding of the core concepts in Investigative Criminal Procedure. West Academic is proud to have worked with NBCUniversal to bring this one-of-a-kind textbook to the market.

ADVANCES IN POLICE THEORY AND PRACTICE

For details contact Editor-in-chief Dr. Dilip K. Das at dilipkd@aol.com

Presenting volumes that focus on the nexus between research and practice, this series is geared toward those practitioners and academics seeking to implement the latest innovations in policing from across the world.

This series draws from an international community of experts who examine who the police are, what they do, and how they maintain order, administer laws, and serve their communities.

INTERVIEWS WITH GLOBAL LEADERS IN POLICING, COURTS, AND PRISONS

The focus of this series is to obtain a better understanding of the global challenges that criminal justice leaders face and of the successes they achieve while functioning in an increasingly interconnected and democratized world. It provides a thorough and in-depth analysis – from an insider's perspective – of how key police, corrections, and court leaders and administrators view their roles and the difficulties associated with the changing nature of their work. It aims to record the criminal justice system through interviews with global leaders who speak about the organizational structure, leadership, functions, public projects, training, culture and societal context of their organizations in different countries. The ultimate goal is to discover if external observers' perspectives match what practitioners perceive about their work.
